

The mission of South Carolina Business Week is to contribute to the preparation of young adults for the business environment by introducing them to the principles of leadership, teamwork and the American free enterprise system while promoting self-reliance, individual responsibility and entrepreneurship.

What is South Carolina Business Week?

- An inside look at business in action, this program is designed to educate high school students on entrepreneurship and the American free enterprise system.
- Students attend the program fully sponsored by the business community – only a $50 fee is due upon acceptance.
- Business Week will be held on the campus of Presbyterian College in Clinton, South Carolina July 13 –18, 2014.

Who Makes Up the Faculty?

- 30-40 leaders in business, education and government share their special knowledge and skills with the students.
- CEOs from some of South Carolina's largest corporations provide the big picture.
- Students hear from experts in economics, diversity, communications, international business, management and research and development.

Who Can Participate?

STUDENTS MUST:

- Have completed their sophomore, junior or senior year by Spring of 2014;
- Be currently ranked in the top one-third of their class; and
- Possess demonstrated leadership skills through school and community activities.

Is There Time for Fun?

- Students will be permitted to use the recreational facilities at the college.
- Planned activities, such as a pizza party, a dance, a movie and a talent show, will allow time to meet new friends from across South Carolina.

How Does the Program Work?

- Students form mock companies of 10-12 students.
- Student companies are led by Company Advisors, loaned executives from companies across South Carolina.
- Students attend workshops on all aspects of business and test newly-acquired knowledge in a computer business simulation game.
- Students will compete in challenges to make their company the most profitable through sound business decisions.

What is Covered by the Business Sponsorships?

- The cost of living in a dorm room at Presbyterian College
- Three meals a day
- All instructional materials

How Do I Apply?

TO BE ACCEPTED INTO THE PROGRAM, STUDENTS MUST:

- Rank academically in the top one-third of their class;
- Have completed their sophomore, junior or senior year by the end of Spring 2014;
- Possess demonstrated leadership skills through school and community activities;
