

SOUTH CAROLINA
CHAMBER of COMMERCE

2014 York Region Grassroots Luncheon Meeting

Wednesday, August 27th 12:00 p.m. to 1:30 p.m.
City Club of Rock Hill - 140 East Main Street, Rock Hill, SC 29730

Members of the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce and the local chambers of commerce are already preparing for a successful 2015 legislative session to continue the mission to improve South Carolina's business climate and global competitiveness. This important policy-changing work begins at home, at the grassroots level.

We invite you to join the South Carolina Chamber of Commerce and the chambers from York, Lancaster, and Chester counties for the annual York Grassroots Luncheon, sponsored by Duke Energy and York County Natural Gas.

The Grassroots Luncheon will be an open-forum session and is one of the first steps in creating the Competitiveness Agenda, the business community's annual list of legislative priorities. It will begin with a legislative review from South Carolina Chamber staff before moving into an open discussion of legislative issues that businesses believe must be addressed. Once the issues are defined and strategies are developed, the South Carolina Chamber works with legislative officials to create an environment that will improve the business climate in the state.

All members of the state legislative delegation from York County will also be invited.
Don't miss the opportunity to connect with local legislative leaders and to make your voice heard.

The cost to attend is $20 for both members and non-members. Registration is required.
